

Meghan Chiampa

339-933-2607—31 Gore Street #1 Cambridge, MA 02141—Meghan@DesertRaceBoston.com

QUALIFICATIONS

Experienced web designer and online editor with strong creative design and production skills. Social media expert. Self-motivator and has strong attention to detail.

EDUCATION

University of Massachusetts Lowell

Certificate in Web Design and Development, June 2009

University of Massachusetts Boston

Bachelor of Arts, English, June 2007

Concentration in Creative Writing

COMPUTER SKILLS

Photoshop, Illustrator, Dreamweaver, Highly Proficient in CSS and HTML, SEO knowledgeable, FTP knowledgeable, basic MySQL skills Experienced in using and creating WordPress and Drupal based platforms.

WEB/GRAPHIC EXPERIENCE

Freelance Graphic and Web Designer

Boston, MA 2005 to present

Front and back-end design and development for a variety of clients such as Urban Achievers, Teal Education, Seaside Reiki, Tripwolf, The Belmont Afterschool Enrichment Collaborative, New England Bicycle Expo, Kara Kulpa, Marc McGovern and more.

The Deli Magazine – New England

Editor

Boston, MA 2008 to 2011

Editor of The Deli Magazine New England, founded the New England branch in order to network bands from Burlington, Portland, Western Massachusetts and Providence with Boston. Wrote local music reviews and conducted interviews with musicians and others. Hired and trained contributors. Maintained all blog content on site. Conducted monthly and yearly online polls. Booked successful shows around Boston.

OTHER PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Freelance Writer and Music Promoter

Boston, MA 2001 to present

I have contributed to a large variety of online media and print publications such as Performer Magazine, The Deli Magazine, Tech King and Casual Girl Gamer. I also write press releases for the shows I book at Precinct in Somerville and make flyers for the shows in Photoshop or by hand.